INTRODUCTION

Note on the collection

The collection consists of photographs of buildings (and some landscapes) in South Africa, taken by the architect Graeme Binckes, and his wife, Helen, between 1961 and 1976. Graeme Binckes was president of the Cape Town Vernacular Society at the time. Helen Binckes is an art teacher.

The photographs include domestic and other buildings of architectural interest.

Except where otherwise indicated, each entry consists of a black and white photograph and negative.

Copyright of the photographs is vested in the donors, Graeme and Helen Binckes, during their lifetimes and thereafter will be vested in the University of Cape Town.
